ABOUT THIS HOME

Feel like the king/queen of your own castle in our perfectly designed two-story home. From the moment you step into the grand entry you will be enveloped in the charming design. The spacious kitchen provides a beautiful bay window which allows natural light from all angles, our optional island increases storage and countertop space if desired. The utility room is situated so that you can keep your laundry chore hidden from the view of others, just close the door and forget about it...for as long as you can. The split level staircase takes you up to the game room which boasts several decorative arches adding to its beauty and appeal. This massive master bedroom provides plenty of space for oversized furniture and privacy from the secondary bedrooms.
